Showcase description

Welcome to my page! My name is Michela and I'm a freelance illustrator based in Berlin. After graduating in design studies at IUAV University in Venice, I worked as a graphic and fashion designer, exploring life in different international metropolis. I have then deepened my knowledge in illustration by attending courses at Accademia di belle Arti di Macerata - Ars in Fabula - and Scuola Internazionale di Illustrazione in Sarnede (Italy). Since 2011 I have been working as a freelance illustrator and graphic designer, collaborating with independent international publishers.
