Showcase description

Francesco D'Elia, born on 03/26/1993 in Taranto (TA), I attended the State Institute of Art "V. Calò" of Grottaglie (TA) qualified as an art teacher and graduating in graphic design. <https://fraild.wordpress.com> on my online portfolio you will see some advertising work, idealized with Photoshop or Illustrator as logos, posters, business cards, banners, posters, and magazine images with social issues. You can see also some work drawn in pencil or directly with the china, and then processed with Photoshop. I have an advertising-book designer and illustrator, and this is what I want to do in my life, of my life. I deal with graphics, communication and planning with perseverance, determination and great curiosity ever since I graduated. With the mouse on the one hand and the other pencil, I always look for the best solution to all my projects, because I think with creativity and imagination can reach any objective!
