Showcase description

I'm Erika, 32 years old, and I?ve been living through my writing since I was six. Do you remember those scented, lockable secret diaries? Well, that?s where I started, and I?ve never stopped. More than a dream or a talent, I see it as a calling; there?s nothing else I?d rather do or know how to do better. Because of this, I decided to pursue a professional path in communication. I?m currently working as an SEO Copywriter and Social Media Manager.
